

INTRODUCTION TO LAW AND THE LEGAL PROCESS
LEGAL STUDIES 101 - Fall 2007
Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania
Prof. Matwyshyn
amatwysh@wharton.upenn.edu

OVERVIEW: This course surveys the fundamentals of the U.S. legal system and process, its evolution and the social policy needs of our society. It will introduce several substantive areas of law, with a particular focus on contracts and applications of traditional legal concerns in emerging technology policy contexts.

CLASS MEETS: Tuesday & Thursday, 3:00–4:30 PM

OFFICE HOURS: Tuesday & Thursday, 11:30-12:00 and 4:30–5:00PM, other times by appointment

E-MAIL: E-mail will be used for course announcements. Please check your e-mail daily.

MATERIALS: COURSE BULKPACK customized for this course, available at Wharton Reprographics only. During the term, supplementary materials will be made available through Reprographics, distributed in class, linked off this syllabus or posted on the course's webCafe website.
