SYLLABUS

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course examines various business disciplines as they apply to the sports industry. The course provides the student with an overview of the business of the intercollegiate, Olympic and professional sports enterprises. In addition, the course investigates the business related issues encountered by managers of sport organizations and covers how business principles can be applied to effectively address these issues.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Through classroom presentations, discussions, and completion of course assignments, the student will be acquainted with a varied but limited number of important concepts in the study of business as they apply to the sports industry. Special attention is given to the regulation of professional and amateur athletics, the organizational structure of sports leagues and associations, labor-management relations, and the application of business principles to sports.

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

Rosner, Scott and Shropshire, Kenneth. (2004). The Business of Sports. Sudbury, Massachusetts: Jones & Bartlett Publishers. ISBN: 0-7637-2621-4.

Subscription (12 weeks) to SportsBusiness Daily (payment due on Tuesday, January 22).

Course Materials will also be distributed via class handouts and/or electronically, consisting primarily of the arbitration cases and articles of current interest. Lecture slides for each class are posted on the course website at <http://download.wharton.upenn.edu/download/pub/lgst/Srosner/> and clicking on 'LGST 207/809 Lecture Slides.' Readings that are not in the textbook are available at on the course website at <http://download.wharton.upenn.edu/download/pub/lgst/Srosner/> and clicking on 'LGST 207/809 Readings.' You must have a Wharton account to access course materials distributed via the course website. A Wharton account can be established by going to Computer Services in the Forum of Huntsman Hall.

SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS:

Regular reading of websites, newspapers, and magazines pertinent to the sports industry is strongly suggested, as a student of sports business management should make every attempt to learn about current issues facing sport managers. Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, USA Today, Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal, and The NCAA News, as well as ESPN's SportsCenter and HBO's Real Sports are all recommended media sources. Helpful websites include: www.espn.com, www.sportingnews.com, sportsillustrated.cnn.com, and www.ncaa.org. Access to the www.sportsbusinessdaily.com website also contains an archive of past articles.

COURSE METHOD OF INSTRUCTION:

Class sessions will follow a lecture/discussion format. Experiential exercises and case studies may also be used.

GRADING BASIS:

TEAM RESEARCH PROJECT	100 points
NEGOTIATION EXERCISE	200 points
MIDTERM EXAMINATION	250 points
FINAL EXAMINATION	250 points

PARTICIPATION:

Class participation can result in a half grade upward or downward departure (i.e. an A- to an A, or a B+ to a B). Students are expected to be prepared for every class. Attendance is not participation! Students should have their table tents displayed in each class. The quality of participation, as reflected in careful reading and thorough analysis of the assigned materials, is important. It is also important to build upon other students' comments. This requires attentive listening. Class participation will be judged on the basis of quality and consistency. In addition, the student's participation grade may be negatively impacted by deficient attendance. Students are encouraged to discuss the adequacy of their participation with the professor.

EXAM AND ASSIGNMENT POLICIES:

All examinations must be taken during the scheduled examination time. No make-ups will be given. All examinations will be closed texts and notes. Assignments are expected to be submitted or presented on the assigned due date. Late work and missed presentations will receive a zero.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

The Wharton School and the University of Pennsylvania are committed to academic honesty. All cases of alleged plagiarism, cheating on examinations and similar forms of academic dishonesty will be reviewed by the appropriate disciplinary bodies. Please refer to the Student Handbook for guidelines relating to academic dishonesty. Students found to have engaged in academic dishonesty will fail the course in addition to any discipline imposed by the University.

Honesty in all academic work is expected of every student. This means giving one's own answers in all class work, papers, and examinations without help from sources not approved by the professor. Written material is to be the student's own original composition. It is expected that ideas that are taken from articles, books, the internet, etc. will be properly noted in all written papers submitted. It is important to remember that to copy or to paraphrase someone else's work, ideas, or language without proper reference is plagiarism.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

NEGOTIATION/ARBITRATION

Students will engage in a negotiation exercise during the semester, the end result of which will be a contract between a hypothetical team and player in Major League Baseball or representing the aforementioned player or team in a salary arbitration. The student will hand in a paper of 15-20 pages. Details on this assignment will be provided in greater detail during the semester.

TEAM RESEARCH PROJECT

Students will be assigned to groups of 3-4 and will perform research on topics covered in the course textbook. Each group will be responsible for finding and handing in 4-5 scholarly articles and/or book chapters published since 2004 on an assigned topic and creating PowerPoint slides corresponding to each article/book chapter. Details on this assignment will be provided in greater detail during the semester.
