Assigned Reading: You must obtain a course pack through study.net/Wharton Reprographics. This service is new to the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and we will figure out how to use it together. The reading for each class must be completed before the lesson for which it is assigned. Please bring the course pack to class. This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor – in the event of a change you will be notified in class.

Grading: The final examination will count for 40% of your grade. A midterm examination will count for 25% of your grade. Class preparation, participation and attendance will count for 35% of your grade. Class participation includes attending class, on time. Class participation also includes evidence of preparation, and thoughtful contribution to the class discussion, as well as timely completion of any in-class assignments or projects.
