Course Description: Legal and Transactional Aspects of Entrepreneurship is a practical and intensive course that examines the critical legal and transactional issues confronting start-up and emerging growth companies. The course provides perspective on how to use the law strategically to manage risk, deploy resources and maximize shareholder value. Topics include the enforceability of confidentiality, non-competition and other restrictive covenants in employment agreements, choice of business form including the legal, financial and tax advantages and disadvantages of general partnerships, limited partnerships, corporations and limited liability companies, tax and securities law aspects of raising capital, structuring venture capital and private equity transactions, mergers, acquisitions and other entrepreneurial deal structures, employment law, and intellectual property law including trade secrets, copyrights, patents and trademarks.

Course Materials:

Required Materials: Readings available on course Canvas.

Recommended Materials: Start-up & Emerging Companies: Planning, Financing, and Operating the Successful Business by G. Smith (Law Journal Seminars Press), and The Entrepreneur’s Guide to Business Law by Bagley and Dauchy (West) available at the Bookstore.

A Note on the Course: This course is designed to be practical and intensive. Extensive readings are the core of the course. Please do not register for the course unless you intend to be prepared for and actively involved (voluntarily or involuntarily) in each class.

Grading Policy: There will be one mid-term examination, and one final examination. Each examination will be equally weighted and each will be a closed-book, closed-note examination.
