This course examines the legal issues of real estate financing with an emphasis on commercial transactions. The main topics covered are acquisition, construction and permanent financing; development and management aspects; with a focus on examining the fundamentals of real estate finance and development from a legal perspective. The course serves as a foundation course for real estate majors and provides an introduction to real estate for other students. The course will be of interest to students contemplating careers in accounting, real estate development, real estate finance, city planning, or banking. The main topics covered may include the following: land acquisition; finance; choice of entity; tax aspects; management (leasing, environmental); disposition of real property (sale of mortgaged property, foreclosures, wraparound mortgages, sale-leasebacks); and recent legal developments.

Course Requirements & Rules

The course is open to Wharton MBA students, selected School of Design students, and selected upper class undergraduates (Fall Semester 2014 only).

No prerequisites are necessary for taking the class.

Grades in this class are based on two examinations (first in-class exam worth 30%, second in-class exam 30%), one group project worth 30%, and class participation 10%.

IF YOU DECIDE TO DROP THE CLASS, YOU MUST DO SO BEFORE THE FIRST EXAM -- no exceptions!

Please note my exam policy: you must take the exam with your class on the date indicated on this syllabus. Absent extraordinary circumstances, there will be NO MAKE UPS. Job interviews do not as qualify as an emergency.

Assignments: Read and be prepared to discuss the assigned pages in the texts by the date indicated. Class attendance and participation is expected. Also, please be prepared for “cold-calling.”

Description of projects: One project will be due during the semester. The project will be done in approximately groups of four. I will select students to make up the groups. The project will require the group to analyze a potential commercial real estate development, negotiate a resolution with an opposing group, and submit their solution by the date specified. I will grade on a group basis unless it is clear to me that one (or more) members of the group contributed exceptionally more or less to the project. In that case, I will assign grades on an individual basis.

Attendance and Class Participation: Success in this course is based on the student’s consistent preparation, regular attendance, and active participation in all class discussions. Students’ informed contributions to the learning process are expected on a regular basis; therefore, attendance is mandatory. I reserve the right to drop from the rolls any student missing four (4) or more classes in accordance with University regulations.
