OVERVIEW: This course surveys the fundamentals of the U.S. legal system and process, its evolution and the social policy needs of our society. It will introduce several substantive areas of law, with a particular focus on contracts and applications of traditional legal concerns in emerging technology policy contexts, and will conclude with an introduction to America's place in the legal world order.

CLASS MEETS: Tuesday-Thursday 9:00-10:20 JMHH F55

OFFICE HOURS: Wednesday 1:30-3:30, or send me an email (and it's not a bad idea to send me an email if you're thinking of coming by regardless – I'm open for business Wednesday afternoon, but capable of drifting off to the coffee machine). I'm happy to meet on most other days of the week.

MATERIALS: COURSE BULKPACK customized for this course, available on STUDY.NET. I will add occasional additional readings over the course of the semester.

COURSE FORMAT: The course combines lecture, Socratic dialogue, and group discussion. Active class participation is expected.
