Course description and objectives:

This course introduces the role of merchandising at various retailers with an emphasis on apparel and soft-line businesses. Selected topics will include product development, line planning, sourcing, product lifecycle, forecasting, buying, planning and vendor relations. Special emphasis will be placed on current trends in retail merchandising through current articles and industry guest speakers.

The objective of this course is to familiarize students with merchandising theory and strategies considered to be current best practices in retailing, and to provide them the opportunity to apply these ideas and methods in course assignments and in the final culminating project.

Reading Materials:

(Helpful if you have little retail experience)

Additional reading materials, assignments and slides will be available via Canvas. Fall 2017

Grading - weighted as follows:

- Class participation 15%
- Assignment 1 15%
- Assignment 2 15%
- Team Assignment 3 20%
- Final Paper 35%

- Class participation includes attendance, preparation and “quality” discussion during the class lecture and thoughtful review of other team presentations.
- Readings and assignments will be given each week and will be due the next, they will be designed to provide practice-implementing concepts from the previous class or to prepare students for a guest speaker or class discussion.
- The team assignment and final paper will have several research components providing the students the opportunity to apply the methods and theory learned throughout the course.
